Kenneth Cole New York and AIDS Legal Council of Chicago to Host a Night of Shopping for World AIDS Day

Chicago, IL – In recognition of World AIDS Day, Kenneth Cole New York will be hosting a special shopping event on Friday, December 1st, from 5:30 pm to 8:30pm to benefit the AIDS Legal Council of Chicago. Twenty percent of sales made at Kenneth Cole New York's Michigan Avenue location will be donated to ALCC to support its legal assistance programs for individuals with HIV.

Featuring a guest musical performance by The Skies We Built and a stellar line-up of sponsors, including Art & Science Salons, Translucent Chocolates, diLuce Productions, Laura Mercier and Stila Cosmetics, guests can enjoy an evening of shopping, sample delicious food and wine and take advantage of a complimentary makeover, all while supporting a worthy cause. Bukiety will be providing floral arrangements and Phil Stefani Signature Restaurants and Sidetrack will be supplying food and wine.

The evening is free and open to the public, but guests are urged to RSVP to ALCC by calling Ricardo Cifuentes or Cynthia Frahm at (312) 427-8990. The first 100 attendees will receive a fabulous gift bag courtesy of the evening's sponsors. Kenneth Cole New York is located at 540 N. Michigan Avenue on Chicago's Magnificent Mile.

The AIDS Legal Council of Chicago was established in 1988 to assist low-income individuals with HIV facing complex legal difficulties because of their HIV status. The Council provides direct legal assistance, conducts community trainings on HIV-related legal issues and engages in advocacy to help shape fair public policy around HIV and AIDS.
